

How to Benefit From the Growth of Online Commerce in 2020 and Beyond

Business people, Entrepreneurs and Consumers can all benefit from the changes that have taken place in Online Commerce in 2020.

In this workshop we will discuss some of the background of the online marketplace and the explosive changes and trends that have occurred in 2020 that have caused the industry to leap years ahead of what was planned. How can you benefit either from a business or a consumer perspective.

Presented by Ken Anderson - Internet Marketing Consultant and former Information Technology Technical Director in the Aerospace Industry, will help us explore and discuss what 2020 has brought and what the future holds.
